STIFF FINES FOR OLD OFFENDERS

It was "old home day" for more than one Japanese who played a return engagement at the Larnach matinee this morning, when a troupe of trained gamblers under the direction of Chief of Detectives McDuffie assayed the role of star performers.
Officers raided a den of chance last evening and in the melee a considerable quantity of damaging evidence was garnered.

Nine Orientals were at first inclined to resist their being dragged before the spotlight of municipal correction.

District Magistrate Larnach was told that several of those who faced his court this morning were old tim-ors in police annals. He scanned the list and a sliding scale of fines then and there went into effect. Financial remuneration ranging from $20 to six dollars was demanded and paid in full before the Japanese were permitted to leave the premises.

It was an off day for one William Silver, who had barely stepped from the portals of Hotel Asch before he was confronted with a charge of being under the influence of strong beverage. Silver pleaded guilty and was handed a thirty-day visitor's card at the Twisted Club.

In the case of one individual imbibing too freely of a nut brown beverage, a suspended sentence for thirteen months was given with the understanding that the defendant chase a job without further delaying with the cup that causes many men to waver in their determination to vote the "straight ticket."

The third case of gross intemperance drew a fine of five dollars and the costs of prosecution.

4000 FILIPINOS COME HERE IN YEAR

MANILA, P. I.—A report of Royal E. Mead, of the Hawaiian Sugar Plantations' Association, transmitted to the director of labor, and by him to the secretary of commerce and police, states that there were 3885 Filipinos sent from Manila to Hawaii to the company's sugar plantations during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1912.

POLITICAL NOTES

Col. Sam Parker, in the second of a series of statements issued defining his stand as a candidate for mayor, says that he believes the Rapid Transit franchise which will come up in the next legislature should be left to the Honolulu members. He favors municipal control and supervision of water and sewers.

Wonder if Turkey now thinks that Ireland is the only place looking for home rule.

Honolulu is about to experience real live mayor.

At this season of the year it is predicted that the little schooner Flaurence Ward should make a fairly quick passage between Midway island and Honolulu. The Ward will be given a supply of provisions and Christmas cheer, destined for the isolated mid-Pacific cable station.
